Pastor’s Corner

The month of November brings with it a season of thankfulness. While many people acknowledge the need for giving thanks, unfortunately this attitude of gratitude is usually replaced with time spent together sharing a meal, or watching a parade, or shopping for the upcoming Christmas holiday. While there is nothing necessarily wrong with these activities, what is often lost in the busyness of Thanksgiving week is the continual expression of gratitude we should have for the many blessings in our life. Gratitude properly expressed connects us with God and helps us display one of the attributes of Jesus along the way. During this season I want to encourage you to ponder the ways Jesus displayed gratitude and then allow that mindset to be present as you give thanks for the blessings in your life. After all, we are commanded to, “give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.” (1 Thessalonians 5:18 ESV)
