Pastor’s Corner

WOW! Where did January go? It is easy to get so busy with life that time seems to slip by us. I hope and pray that the first few weeks of 2025 have been a period of spiritual renewal and growth for you. I know God has surely shown me a few things during this time. Because of these things, my appreciation and love for the Father have gotten even stronger. Also, my reliance on Him has increased. But, is this not where HE wants us to be in our relationship with Him? Relying on His strength to get us through each day. Relying on His Spirit to guide us. Relying on His love to comfort us. It is one thing to say “God is good,” but it is another to believe it – everyday and all the time! Psalm 34:8 says, “Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good! Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him!” As you get ready for another month, I pray that each of you slows down and makes the time to “taste” the goodness of God. It truly is tremendous!
