Pastor's Corner

This is the month where, at the beginning, we celebrate Independence. Having served, with honor, for twenty-seven years for the SC Army National Guard, I am still at awe over the many men and women who served before me and helped make it possible for me to enjoy the freedoms associated with independence and living here in the United States. This time of year also reminds me of the greatest freedom I have. A freedom that no man earned or could have earned. A freedom that only Jesus provides. Because of Him, I am free from and forgiven from all my sin. I am also free from facing the just wrath of an Almighty God. Because of Jesus, I am truly free! I hope you too can say these things about Him. I hope too that you will thank Him and praise Him for all your freedoms, the ones we are blessed with in the US as well as the eternal ones that await.
