Pastor's Pen

Ahh! We've made it to my favorite time of the year, FALL. Cool breezes, colorful landscapes, apple crisp, campfires; these are some of my favorite things. I consider each of these as blessings directly from God. They may seem small but in a season where days get shorter and darkness becomes more abundant, isn't it awesome how God utilizes these simple things to keep us encouraged. Psalm 104 is a great reminder of the greatness of God. In it we can find comfort and inspiration as we enjoy the festivities and blessings the fall season has to offer.

"Bless the Lord, O my soul! O Lord my God, you are very great! You are clothed with splendor and majesty"
Psalm 104:1
