Pastor's Pen

Spring has a way of speaking before a single word is spoken. As winter draws to a close, everything around us begins to breathe again, the Church is invited to a deeper understanding about the coming season. Solomon captures this awakening with striking clarity: “For behold, the winter is past; the rain is over and gone. The flowers appear on the earth, the time of singing has come” (Song of Solomon 2:11–12). These verses echo the very heartbeat of the coming Easter celebrations. What God demonstrates in nature becomes a living parable of what He has done in Christ—moving His people from coldness to renewal, from silence to song, from death to resurrected life. Spring doesn't just announce a change in weather; it ushers the church(us) into a fresh awareness of hope. As buds break open and light grows stronger, we are reminded that the risen Jesus is still making all things new, calling His people into the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ,

Pastor Brian
