Pastor's Pen

September often feels like turning the page of your favorite book. Summer is fading away, normal routines return, and the pace of life begins ramp up once again. As this season moves on, remember that God's grace does not rise and fall with the calendar. He meets you in every spot, steadying your steps and renewing your strength for what lies ahead. If this month brings new responsibilities or unexpected challenges, let it also bring a fresh awareness of His nearness.

"The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?" — Psalm 27:1

This September, take courage in the truth that God is already present in the places you have not yet walked. Nothing about this season is unknown to Him. May your heart rest in His faithfulness, your mind be anchored in His promises, and your days be shaped by His peace.

In Christ,

Pastor Brian
